the street. With the cans removed the street would be littered with paper and other refuse, he said, and instead of having a clean street it would be a disgrace to Watch Hill.

To this Mr. Property Owner replied: "It is your duty to not permit such use of the public street, but if you can't do it, it is up to the town of Westeriy to keep Eay street in a clean condition, and I'll see that the town does it. The town has a street cleaner in High and Main streets, and I'll hire a man at work in Bay street at the expense of the lown. But, mark what I say, my man, these garbage cans must go."

The peliceman's only response was a side remark: "Now, what do you think of that"

David Kenneth, a resident of Westerly fer over sixty years, died Monday night at his home in Granite street, in his seventy-third year. He was a son of John and Jeanette Kenneth, was born in Paisley, Scotland, April 3, 1839, and came to Westerly with his parents when quite young. In early life he began work in woolen mills in Westerly and vicinity and was over-seer in the dressing and sorting de-partments. He served in the civil war in Company B, Minth Rhode Island in-fantry, and was henorably discharged at the expiration of his term of serv-

Mr. Kenneth was a member of Franklin lodge, F. and A. M., of Palmer chapter, R. A. M., of Budlong Post, G. A.
